Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Lawrence Wayne Herron (whom everyone calls Mike) and Ida Huyck were married on October 23, 1913; and,

WHEREAS, Seventy years have passed, and Mike and Ida are still living in their own home and enjoying each other's company; and,

WHEREAS, It is hard to pinpoint one reason why their marriage has been so successful, but it is certainly worth mentioning that along with being a close, loving couple, Mike and Ida have also been active, involved individuals; and,

WHEREAS, While Mike has been a successful farmer, rancher, and horse racer, Ida has belonged to extension clubs for over 50 years, has been on the Library Board of Trustees, and was named "Eminent Homemaker" by the SDSU Extension Service in 1963; and,

WHEREAS, Along with their many activities, Ida and Mike have shared a curiosity about life and the world around them. This curiosity has taken them to all parts of the United States, including Hawaii, and such exotic locations as South America, Europe, and, not too many years ago, Cameroon, West Africa; and,

WHEREAS, Mike and Ida Herron are South Dakota natives who have contributed much in their lives to this state. Along with being the parents of three children: Lucille, Eileen, and Max, who died many years ago, they also have six grandchildren, and have been great-grandparents ten times over; and,

WHEREAS, On October 22, 1983, the day before their official anniversary, Ida and Mike will be gathering with a small group of close friends to celebrate this momentous occasion. We all wish this fine couple many more years of happy living together:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 23, 1983, as

L. W. "MIKE" AND IDA HERRON DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
